

RASHTRIYA JHARKHAND SEVA SANSTHAN

A sport helps in education

To develop sports spirit in girls and boys in our 8 intervention villages we promote the football within them through the bal munch. This is a surprising to the girls that they have been playing first time any outdoor games. Also they prove her through the football games. Also they self motivate for education through the games.

Life Skill Training of Bal Munch

Life skill training for bal munch has been organized for develop the decision making capacity and develop the skill and confidence of bal munch member. Many playing activities have been done in this training program that makes interest about science, sports and education to the children of our intervention village.

Scholarship for Intellectual students

10 needy and intellectual students of Ambabad Panchayat has been got the scholarship of Rs. 1000/- regular for the six month period for the completing their upper primary education.

Health Check-Up Camp

The organization has been organized health check up camp with joint collaboration with health department in 2 round there were 23 village peoples have been turn up accept our 8 intervention village. There were 564 patient of different disease have been treated and 1500 children's and adults have been immunized by malaria drop in 1st round. In the 2nd round 270 patient of different disease have been treated, 70 adolescent girls have been aware about complication during adolescent age and 47 cataract patients have been identified and 17 peoples have need to operation but 1 operation has been done and rest 16 are under process.

Health and Nutrition camp

Health and Nutrition camp has been organized in 2 village Khawasdi and Samaydi under 2 cluster in 2 round. There were 40 under weight children's have been identified, they got nutritional food for 15 days and the parent of this children's have got the training for making nutritional food from locally available food and also they got the sanitation kit in this camp.

Water Power Campaign

Water Power Campaign conducted Under the Prime Minister has been also initiated in the 3 KM long water drain of our intervention area in the observation of Sri Baidyanath Oraon (Block Development Officer) with the voluntary contribution of the villagers for the purpose of rain water conservation for the irrigation.

Interface meeting

Interface meeting with stakeholders in operational area has been organized with community people, community leaders, departmental officers and Block development officer for integrated development of the operational area, there were 122 peoples have been participated.

From the Pen of the Secretary :

I am very proud to publish the annul news letter of community strengthening program for mica effected families. In the first edition the project aims, important components and project strategies has been shared. Total 549 families out of 2800 families have been livelihood promotion, mass health issues, reproductive and child health, Nutrition, quality education and integrated development of the community, pure and safe drinking water facility, government benefit scheme for untouched families and community level organization development, Strengthening of PRI and speed up of community advocacy policy development of mica security.

Rashtriya Jharkhand Seva Sansthan (RJSS) has been trying to make policy development in social security, health, livelihood for 549 families of 8 villages of 3 Panchayat of Satgawan block at Koderma district.

I acknowledge the greats to Sri Baidyanath Oraon ( Block Development Officer ), Satgawan for step ahead for their kind cooperation for making ideal village to Pelhani village of our operational area. Also giving greats to RMI team for their cooperation for giving an opportunity in this holy work to Rashtriya Jharkhand Seva Sansthan (RJSS). Thanks giving to Mukhiya, Ambabad and all community leaders for their cooperation to implement the project in grass root level. Also thanks to Abhibyakti Foundation and all members of Cesam Network for their technical and formal experience support to make strong efforts in development of our operational area. Also thanks to all project team members for make possible to achieving the aims of the project in one year with their efforts and sincerity that have been reflecting in the area. Also thanks to villagers that go ahead through project.

I hope that effective policy would be implementing with Government in a strong and successful way and make change the life of the community to share the experience to all beneficiaries through this annual news letter.

With Regards
Manoj Kumar
Secretary
Rashtriya Jharkhand Seva Sansthan
Koderma

COMMUNITY STRENGTHENING PROGRAM FOR MICA EFFECTED FAMILIES

Convergence with Government Scheme

The main aim of the project was to convergence of untouched families and community with government scheme. Under this project we have got success to added the 1423 member of 8 villages through the government scheme. They got the benefits of Ayushman Card, Swami Vivekanand Yojna, Employment scheme, Prime Minister Housing Scheme, Chef Minister Sukanya Yojna, Chief Minister Agriculture scheme, Ujjawala Yojna, Bank Account, Birth Certificate, Food Security Scheme etc.

200 families have been using Safe drinking water from a water tank constructed well equipped with a high quality water purifier. Also 275 families have been benefitted through a defunct hand pump has been repaired in Angar Village and a old and defunct hand pump also has been repaired at Pelhani village. Total 275 families have been using the water of these hand pump for drinking and other domestic purpose.

Healthy Life with Safe Drinking Water

Community Irrigation Centre

A community irrigation Centre has been constructed at Pelhani village by assets building under this project. Almost 40 acres land are irrigated. Now vegetable cultivation initiate in 200 decimal land. Onion and wheat cultivation are higher than the earlier. 30 quintal green gram has been cultivated through this facility. This is self operated centre that operating through self contribution of the community people. This centre has been make change the life of the community.

Livelihood promotion program for most poor families

18 women's from 8 villages have been got trained in initial assessment of livelihood and as per demand of community people that makes income generation of their family and 10 women's have been trained and got employment in year 2019-2020

EMPLOYMENT THROUGH SKILL

Model ICDS centre

3 ICDS centre of operational area Samaydih, Khawasdih and Yogidih are making example of Model ICDS centre in the district. ICDS worker, helper, Nutritional friends and all stakeholders have been sensitized by the venture of the organization and the government. Important and entertaining education material has been developed by using locally available resource materials under the guidance of trained person make available by Terre Des Hommes_ Netherland. After that situation has been totally change i.e. 100% children (3-6 Years) attending in regular basis, Mata Samiti has more active, Supplementary nutritional food distribution is regularise, ensure the six services of ICDS etc.

Decoration and beautification of the School

200 families have been using Safe drinking water from a water tank constructed well equipped with a high quality water purifier. Also 275 families have been benefitted through a defunct hand pump has been repaired in Angar Village and a old and defunct hand pump also has been repaired at Pelhani village. Total 275 families have been using the water of these hand pump for drinking and other domestic purpose.

Special Education Centre

5 days financial literacy training has been organized for targeted families of our project intervention area for the awareness about the income, expenditure, loan, savings, financial target and insurance benefits of government scheme. The training has been followed the training given by Cesam network.

Bal Munch Festival

8 bal munch has been established in 8 village of our operational area for develop the capacity about education, cultural and mental well being. In the election process of bal munch 470 children's of 8 villages have been uses their rights through the parliamentary process and understood this process.

To mobilise children, adolescent and youths meeting minimum proficiency standards in reading and mathematics Rashtriya Jharkhand Seva Sansthan (RJSS) has been working in 8 schools for changing learning environment, develop the capacities of teachers and develop the quality of education. 4 schools Mohanariya, samaydih, Khwasdih and Pelhani has making example of model school. These schools has equipped with all types of education materials and resorces. 39 irregular childrens has been enrolled in the school.

Training of School Management Committee

2 special education centre has been operating in Angar and Mohanariya village of Ambabad Panchayat after the assessment of std 3 and 5 of hindi and math in grade A,B,C,D and E. The assessment has been done with 30 children of Angar and 32 children of Mohanariya have educated through maximum syllabus system then we got developed their educational status.

Financial Literacy Training

Bal munch festival has been organized in the presence of Block Development Officer. They addressed them that bal munch is the strong medium of change. The bal munch officers have been elected under the parliamentary process and also they explain about their roles and responsibilities regarding the community development and eventually they distributed the identity certificate among them.

Bal Munch medium of change

